

RTHETAPHI SOFTWARE PRIVACY NOTICE

Version 1.0

Effective Date: August 2026

Rthetaphi respects your privacy. This Privacy Notice explains the limited information that may be processed when Rthetaphi software products use Rthetaphi's online licensing, activation, and related services.

1. Information Used for License Activation

When a Rthetaphi software product is activated or occasionally verifies a license, Rthetaphi may receive and process:

- An obfuscated device identifier used to identify and authorize the computer for software licensing purposes.
- License information necessary to verify the validity and status of the software license.
- Technical information necessary to operate and secure the licensing service.

The obfuscated device identifier is used solely for software license activation, verification, and management.

2. Information We Do Not Request Through License Activation

The software's licensing system does not require you to provide your:

- Name
- Home address
- Telephone number
- Payment card information
- Personal files or documents
- Software analysis data
- Measurement data

Payment information, if applicable, is handled by the payment provider used to purchase a license and is not collected directly by the software's activation system.

3. Purpose of Information Processing

Information processed through the licensing system is used only as necessary to:

- Activate software licenses;
- Verify license validity;
- Manage authorized use of a license;
- Prevent unauthorized activation or use;
- Maintain the security and reliability of the licensing service; and
- Provide technical support related to software activation.

Rthetaphi does not use the licensing identifier for advertising or behavioral profiling.

4. Data Retention

Rthetaphi may retain licensing information for as long as reasonably necessary to administer active licenses, prevent unauthorized use, maintain licensing records, resolve licensing issues, and comply with applicable legal obligations.

5. Internet Connection

The software may communicate with Rthetaphi's licensing servers when a license is activated or when licensing services are used.

6. Security

Rthetaphi takes reasonable measures designed to protect information processed through its licensing services against unauthorized access, alteration, or disclosure.

7. Changes to This Notice

Rthetaphi may update this Privacy Notice from time to time to reflect changes in the software, licensing services, or applicable legal requirements.

The current version of this Privacy Notice will be made available through the Rthetaphi website or the Software.
